
We hope you will join us for the Transition Conference

Our Goals:

- Provide information that is culturally and linguistically appropriate to help with post high school transition.
 - To increase knowledge and access to resources that help families find appropriate services.
 - To encourage problem solving and communication for informed decisions that help our youth succeed.
 - Develop a collaborative between non-profits, state agencies and other stake holders to address the needs of youth and adults with disabilities.
 - To connect with other families, professionals and service providers to build strong community networks.

This collaboration has been made possible by:
